

Authors

The 15 Global Challenges provide a framework for understanding and exploring global change. In MÉXICO 2050 Challenges, scenarios actions this process is carried out. Congratulations! A monumental job!

Jerome C. Glenn
President and co-founder of the Millennium Project

With a lucid and diverse look, this magnificent book is a treasure trove of visions and reflections on the challenges that Mexico (and Latin America) will face in the next 30 years. Its highly recommended reading is a cure to avoid myopia.

Rebeca Grynspan
UNCTAD General Secretariat

Enriching the sources of inspiration to imagine the future is one of the central challenges of our time. MÉXICO 2050 offers a rich catalog of images of the future. Stimulate your imagination, read this book! "

Riel Miller
Head of Futures Literacy, UNESCO,

Authors

